Horse Stolen.

A LARGE SORREL HORSE, WITH A STAR IN his face, two or three white spots on each side of the back from saddle sores near the withers, fore-top trimmed and not yet grown out, [no other marks remembered] was stolen from the Tournament Ground at Louisburg on the 14th inst.

ANOTHER!

A small black mare six years old, with a star in her face—the same which was ridden by the successful Knight in the Louisburg Tournament—was stolen from my stable in Franklin County, on the night of the 16th inst.

A liberal reward will be given for the recovery of either or both the above animals, or for information that will lead to their recovery.

A. M. LEWIS.

I DO HEREBY APPOINT WM. H. JONES, CASHier of the Bank of Cape Fear, my true and lawful Agent and Attorney, to collect all amounts owing and due to me, and to settle by discount and payment, all claims against me, and to do all other acts and things relative to my property and effects, as fully as I myself could in person, and I do ratify his acts, this the 15th day of November, 1865, at Raleigh, N. C. A. M. LEWIS.

Raleigh, November 16, 1865-86-2ws.

VALUABLE AND DESIRABLE PROPERTY FOR SALE.

ON THE 20TH DAY OF DECEMBER, THE SUBscribers will sell at auction, for cash, the site on the Cape Fear River at Fayetteville, where the Clarendon Bridge formerly stood, including Toll House, the Land on both sides of the River, Piers, and whatever is left of the property. The sale will be made on the express condition that the purchaser is to build a new, double track, covered bridge, the length of which will be six hundred feet or thereabout.

The site is very desirable to persons having the necessary capital for the work to be done. There is no bridge now on the river. The investment of money in this contemplated work, so near as it is to a large market town, must prove largely remunerative.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 1865.

OUR TERMS.

THE SENTINEL is issued every morning (Sunday excepted) at the following rates:

|---|---|
| For six months, - - - - - | $5,00 |
| For one month - - - - - | 1,00 |
| " two months - - - - - | 2,00 |

Our terms are invariably in advance. The scarcity of money however, obliges us to say to our friends, that responsible and prompt persons who desire the Sentinel need not delay sending us their names at once, who can send us the Cash in a short time. The money may be sent us by the Rail Road Conductors or the Express Company.

Subscribers, etc.

A number of our friends owe us for subscription and advertising. We need the amount and will be obliged to our friends if they will send it to us by Express or by safe hands. The members of the Legislature will afford a good chance.

The Sentinel will be enlarged in a few days.

The Daily Sentinel.

Our advertising patronage and the demand for greater space in our columns for reading matter, oblige us to enlarge, the Sentinel. Our first number enlarged will be issued on Monday next. It will give us nearly seven columns more of matter. This will increase the expense considerably, but we trust the flattering patronage which we have already received will be continued. Our daily circulation we judge to be equal, if not greater than any daily in the State, but we hope to merit a still larger circulation.

Owing to the poor mail facilities in the State, we cannot hope to commence our Weekly and Semi-Weekly earlier than January next. In the meantime we expect to procure an entire suit of new material and presses, with a full supply of book and job type, in order to execute all work in the best style of the art.

We owe much to the enlightened liberality of our friends for the encouragement we have already received. In a few weeks we hope to be able to offer the public a paper, in all respects corresponding with the public wants.

Our friends may begin to send in their subscriptions for the daily, semi-weekly or weekly.

President Johnson.

The President enjoys at this moment the confidence and esteem of the Southern people to an extent, perhaps greater than that of any other man. No man in the government understands them better than he does. No one more fully appreciates their condition—none sympathizes more fully with them or would risk more to relieve them. He knows that their readiness to return to the Union is not a pretence—that having sworn to be loyal to the government they intend to be so. He is therefore disposed to trust them, and they may be trusted.

The scheme of reconstruction conceived by the President, is magnanimous and forbearing to the South. But although his plan is conservative, it makes no parley with, or concession to disloyalty. He bases it upon the constitution, and relies for its success upon the loyalty and integrity of the people.

Since the exhibition of such marked opposition to his policy on the part of such men as Sumner, Stevens, Phillips and others, and especially since the result of the late elections at the North, the fear has been felt by some in the South, that the President might feel obliged to modify his policy and make it conform more fully to the wishes of the radicals. We are glad that the recent speech of Mr. Colfax in Washington City, evidently designed to commit the President and public opinion to the rigid measures of the radical faction, has afforded the friends of the President the opportunity of correcting an impression, which was operating much to the discouragement of the Southern people, by reaffirming his unwavering purpose to carry out his policy of reconstruction.

The radicals of the North would be glad to fix the impression upon the Southern mind, that the recent elections North were designed as a rebuke and warning to the President, for the liberal course he had marked out for himself towards the South. Fortunately however for the country, the most intelligent journalists of the North, read in those elections an endorsement of the President. Both parties having adopted the same national platform, the only issue between them was a contest for office, and the ins having the vantage ground, were of course successful. The only contest with radicalism, was in Connecticut, where they received a decided check.

It is highly gratifying therefore, to be informed by telegraph from Washington and by the press, that the purposes of the President remain firm and unshaken to carry out his policy, which he will certainly do, unless the South should act unwisely and place impediments in his way which he cannot remove. We feel confident however, that the South will not only sustain the President, but will do whatever he considers absolutely essential to full reconstruction, that does not conflict with her honor or integrity. Nor do we belive the President will make such an exaction.

North Carolina we are sure will do her whole duty in sustaining the President. Her Legislature will readily adopt the amendment to the Constitution, and will cheerfully await the period which he determines shall be most fit, for the removal of the Provisional government and the military power.

Jonathan Worth.

We copy the following from the Wilmington Herald, a paper that warmly supported Gov. Holden in the late election, to show the difference between it and some of its co-adjutors, and to correct an error. It very incorrectly, like some of its cotemporaries, attributes the recent course of President Johnson in ordering Gov. Holden to continue in office as Provisional Governor to the results of the election, whereas, it is due to the President and to truth to say, his action had no reference to the election. The Herald should give no countenance to such an idea, without positive evidence, as it reflects upon the consistency of the President. The fact that gentlemen throughout the State who had heretofore been classed as sedessionists and war men, voted for Mr. Worth, so far from its indicating opposition to the President or the government, was a strong proof of their devotion to both, inasmuch as they voted for Mr. Worth believing him to be a decided friend of the President and government and a better Union man than Gov. Holden. We however give the Herald credit for its defence of the loyalty of our people.

It says:

It cannot be too loudly proclaimed by the press of this State that the governor elect is an honest and unswerving union man. He was not opposed certainly by this journal, because of any political disability or unfitness residing in himself. On the contrary, we took occasion to state distinctly, several times during the canvass, that we believed him to be as good a union man personally as Mr. Holden The only objection urged against him was that he permitted himself to be used by those not animated by friendly feelings towards the government as a tool to defeat the President's man. This fact will doubtless prejudice the government against him, and operate to delay the restoration of civil law. Of this we advised the people repeatedly before the election. They now see an indication of it in the recent communication of the President to the Provisional Governor, directing him to retain his office and continue to exercise its duties.

It is manifestly the interest of every citizen of this State so declared, that the government will see the uselessness of force to hold her in subjection. No one, we venture to say, is desirous of a prolongation of military rule. We want our own Governor, the laws of our own Legislature, the judgments of our own courts, and the security of person and property, guarded by the proper and legitimate authorities of the State. To secure these things it is our duty to impress upon the administration at Washington the loyalty of the man we have selected as our chief magistrate.—Had he been otherwise he could not have been elected in this State. Our people are too far committed to Union principles to support an avowed disunionist now, or even a sympathiser with disunion. Our northern friends will do us the justice to believe this and let the fact be recorded. Let it be proclaimed and reiterated that Jonathan Worth was an original and consistent, unchanging Union man, and that his election is due to the fact that many of our people believed him to be a more consistent Unionist than his competitor.

GOV. Z. B. VANCE.—It is well known that the distinguished gentleman, whose name heads this article, was arrested some months since, carried to Washington City, and for some time confined in the "Old Capitol Prison." It is also known that after a while he was paroled and allowed to return to North Carolina; but it is not known that he is confined to the limits of the small town in which he was temporarily residing. One of the very first acts of the Legislature to assemble next Monday should be, most respectfully to petition the President of the United States for an unconditional pardon of Governor Vance, and if Governor Holden has the magnanimity claimed for him by his friends he will cheerfully forward the petition, appending thereto a personal application for the release of Governor Vance.

We clip the above from the Goldsboro News. We suggested during the Convention, because it was eminently due to him, the propriety of appealing to the President's magnanimity in behalf of Gov. Vance. It was however not done, because the members personally had been called upon to sign a petition for that purpose previously. We hope the Legislature will do so at an early day. Certainly no living man has given a stronger proof of his devotion to the State than has Gov. Vance. And we are sure the whole people of the State with singular unanimity, would sanction such a petition. While our people desire to see a general amnesty for all our citizens, special anxiety is felt in that regard for Gov. Vance and Gov. Graham.

Fifth Congressional District.

We learn that an intelligent and reliable gentleman who came down on the train from Greensboro' or west of that Thursday, states that since the polls were compared, of the vote in the Fifth Congressional District, it has been ascertained that an error in the additions or returns has been discovered, by which it appears that Lewis Hanes, Esq., has been elected to Congress from the Fifth District. We mention it as a gratifying fact if true, in advance of any official information.

NORFOLK VIRGINIAN.—We have received two numbers of this paper published in Norfolk Va., by G. A. Sykes & Co. It is a capital paper and promises to take a leading position among the papers of Virginia.

A friend at Tarboro' informs us that he does not receive the Sentinel regularly. We assure him it is sent promptly from this office. The mails are still irregular, but the Agent is at work doing his best to get them properly at work.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—We have been authorized to state that the Delegates to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, South, will pass for one fare, on the Charlotte & So. Ca. Railroad, going to, and returning from Macon, Ga., on the 14th of December next. They will pay full fare going, and return free upon the certificate of the Secretary of the Assembly.

Governor Hamilton, of Texas, has ordered an election for members of a State Convention to be held on the 8th of January, the Convention to meet on the 7th of February following.

The Legislature.

The following sensible article from the Goldsboro News, meets our views and we adopt it:

There are certain presses of the State that endeavor to create the impression that Secession is not yet killed, that bitter hostility prevails among thousands against the National Government, and that the secessionists of the South are only "biding their time," and that the covert hostility will break out into "overt acts" so soon as the slightest opportunity occurs.

To us in North Carolina, the object of these presses is very apparent—regardless of the injury they may inflict upon the State, by statements as false as they are reckless, they are striving only to perpetuate power in "the hands of the "straitest sect." They know that there is no truth in the statement that the Secessionists and the Vance Conservatives are "nursing their wrath to keep it warm." The truth is, there are no secessionists in the State, and the Vance Conservatives (if by them are meant those who remained truer to the State and Confederacy till all was lost) are truer to the National Government, and to the administration of President Johnson than those who denounce them for a purpose.

A great pressure, in favor of the "straitest sect," will be brought to bear upon the week kneed of the coming Legislature--tales will be told to deceive the very elect, if possible; but we hope the true men will pursue the even tenor of their way, doing all things in decency and in order, unbiassed by the clamors, or threats, of those who would be very tyrants if they had the power.

Let the very best men in the State be elected to the United States Senate—let no question of Test Oath influence the choice, since there is no man in the State of N. C. fit for Senator, who can take the oath without perjury. Graham and Vance would be our choice as we believe they would be the choice of three fourths of the people of the State.

Our judges were elected for life—unless impeached and dismissed. They are still eligible, when pardoned, and it is due to them that all who held postion the 20th of May 1861 should be re-elected, unless something has occurred, since then, to convince the Legislature of their unfitness for the judicial ermine.

We think there should be no hesitation in passing promptly the amendment to the Constitution of the United States abolishing slavery forever. The institution is gone in North Carolina, and gone forever, and there should be no hesitation in so declaring. Some object—affirming that it would be bad faith to Kentucky.—Kentucky took care of herself in the late struggle, and we see no reason why North Carolina should injure herself, or place her people in any false position, purely on account of a State in which slavery has been virtually abolished, if it has not been by the strong arm of military power.

Speakership of the Senate.

MR. EDITOR:—As the time approaches for the meeting of the Legislature, it may not be amiss to canvass through the columns of the public press, the claims of members to official positions in the organization of the houses. I desire in this brief article to speak of the peculiar fitness of one of the members elect to the Senate for the Speakership of that body. I refer to Col. Dennis D. Ferebee of Camden. There are but few men in the State who could bring to the discharge of the responsible duties of this position, more ability than could Col. Ferebee. He is not only a ripe scholer, and an able debater, but having served as a legislator almost continually since 1846, he has parlimentary experience which peculiarly fits him for the position. Another qualification he possesses in a pre-eminent degree. I refer to his urbane manners and kind and courteous disposition. Again, Mr. Editor, let Col. Ferebee be rewarded for the bold and manly stand assumed by him in the Convention during its recent session. In the course which he pursued, he reflected the sentiments of a vast majority of the people of the State, and it will be gratifying to his fellow citizens, all over the State, to know that he has been properly appreciated and suitably rewarded by his brother Senators. CONSERVATIVE.

For the Sentinel.

"An ancient clerk, skilful in precedents, wary in proceeding and understanding in the business of the court, is an excellent figure of a court, and doth many times point the way to the judge himself."

Such, Mr. Editor, was the language of Lord Bacon in reference to a skilful and experienced clerk; and I would respectfully suggest to the members of the approaching General Assembly, to bear it in mind, in the organization of their respective Houses. Able and efficient clerks are indispensably necessary in all deliberative assemblies to the systematic dispatch of business, and the faithful keeping of the records. Indeed, they may be aptly compared to the main spring of a watch which puts in motion all the other parts—the least defect causing derangement and irregularity.

In the Senate, the most prominent names I have heard suggested, are those of Maj. J. A. Engelhard as principal, and Maj. Husted as reading clerks. Both of these gentlemen have had much experience in clerical duties, and Senators, I doubt not, will congratulate themselves in being able to secure their valuable services.

Prominent among the names as applicants for the principal clerkship of the House is that of Maj. Seaton Gales. Maj. Gales is favorably known as a most excellent business gentleman with much experience in public affairs, and would well and creditably fill the position to which he aspires. For reading clerk, I would suggest the name of Col. Edward Cantwell, who is a gentleman of experience in Legislative proceedings and would make an excellent officer.—In selecting the above named gentlemen, the members of the General Assembly about to convene, would indicate a purpose to ignore old party ties and predilections, and to choose officers, not because they have been whigs or democrats, but for their eminent qualifications and fitness.

For principal Engrossing clerk, I presume there will be no opposition to that venerable and much esteemed gentleman E. B. Freeman Esq. His long experience places him "head and shoulders" above any man in the State in clerical duties, and in him the language of Lord Bacon finds a fit and apt illustration.

At latest accounts from Peru a battle was hourly expected between the revolutionary and government forces. The number of troops on each side is estimated at ten thousand, the government forces having the advantage in the quality of their arms and equipments. President Juarez has placed himself at the head of his forces.

Richmond Medical Journal.

We have received the prospectus of this journal. Its publication will be commenced about the 10th of December. The price is $5 per year strictly in advance. The Times says of Dr. Gaillard its editor:

"Dr. F. S. Gaillard, of this city, is the controlling editor of this journal, and his high standing in his profession, joined to an extraordinary energy and peculiar person qualifications for the task he has assumed, give assurance to the ability with which it will be conducted.—Dr. Gaillard is already widely known to the profession, North and South, as an accomplished scholar, a skillful physician and surgeon, and a ready and forcible writer. His talents and skill in his profession met with flattering recognition by the Confederate authorities during the late war. He was medical director for one corps of the army of Northern Virginia until disabled by the loss of an arm at Seven Pines, and at the close of the war, having in the meantime held with credit to himself other posts of distinction, was Medical Inspector of all the hospitals in the Confederate States."

S. F. Phillips, Esq.

MR. EDITOR:—In looking over the list of members of the House of Commons, to see who would probably be its Speaker, I find the names of several gentlemen having the requisite qualifications of patience, talent, skill in parliamentary forms, and sufficient firmness blended with courtesy of manners. But my eye rested on the name of the member from Orange as the one who possesses all these equally with the others, and in whose case is superadded that power of physical endurance, without which in this inclement season, no speaker will find himself reposing on a bed of roses. Is not S. F. Phillips the man whose indomitable pluck and perseverance in official duty will carry the day in competition with those of perhaps equal other qualifications, but who for want of this physical endurance might faint by the way side?

Mexico, France and the United States.

A telegraphic dispatch from Washington says:

As much importance is attached to the statement of the Independence Belge, that the evacuation of Mexico by the French troops may be looked upon as a thing decided on in principle, it will not be uninteresting to recur to the fact that about two years ago M. Drouyn de Lhuys said to Minister Dayton that the dangers to the Government of Maximillian would come principally from the United States, and the sooner we showed ourselves satisfied, and manifested a willingness to enter into peaceful relations with that Government, the sooner would France be ready to leave Mexico and the new Government to take care of themselves, which France would in any event do as it, with propriety, could; but that it would not lead or tempt the Archduke into difficulty, and then desert him before that Government was settled. He added that France could not do that. Mr. Seward, in reply to this narration of Mr. Dayton, instructed him to inform the French Government that in the opinion of the United States the permanent establishment of a foreign and monarchial government in Mexico will be found neither easy nor desirable. The United States, consistently with their principles, can do not otherwise than leave the destinies of Mexico in the keeping of her own people, and recognize their sovereignty and independence in whatever form they themselves shall choose be manifested. It was previously declared by M. Drouyn de Lhuys that as to Mexico "the purpose of the French Government was to take the city, to give some kind of order to the condition of things there, repay themselves for debts, expenses, &c, and then leave the country." The text of the convention concluded between France and Mexico to regulate the conditions of the state of the French troops in Mexico for the purpose of establishing order and consolidating the new Empire, "done at the Castle of Miramer, the 10th day of April, 1864," provides that the French troops at present in Mexico shall be reduced, as soon as possible, to a corps of twenty-five thousand men, including the foreign legion. This corps, in order to the safeguard to the interests which led to the intervention, shall remain temporarily in Mexico on certain conditions, among them that the French troops shall evacuate Mexico in proportion as the Emperor of Mexico shall be able to organize the troops necessary to replace them. The foreign legion in the service of France, composed of eight thousand men, shall nevertheless remain in Mexico six years after all the other French troops shall have been recalled. From that moment the legion shall pass into the service and pay of the Mexican Government, which reserves to itself the right of abridging the duration of the employment of the foreign legion in Mexico.

It was further stipulated that the expenses of the French expedition to Mexico were to be paid by the Mexican government at the sum of 270,000,000 for the whole duration of the expedition down to the 1st of July, 1864, the sum to be on interest at the rate of three per cent. per annum. From the 1st of July all the expenses of the Mexican army shall be at the charge of Mexico.

The above is given merely to show what was the originally declared purpose of Napoleon in establishing a monarchy in Mexico, and the condition, in part, upon which he furnished material assistance.

From Mexico.

A correspondent of the New York Tribune, writing from the City of Mexico, Nov. 3d, says:

Public opinion in Mexico is much excited concerning the news recently received from General Meija that the army now besieging Matamoras consists of Federal soldiers who have crossed the river to place themselves under the orders of General Escobedo, commander of all the Jaurist forces in that regton. Several of these soldiers dressed in Federal uniforms have been made prisoners, and are now awaiting their fate in the prison of Matamoras. According to (Imperial) Mexican law, these men are to be considered filibusters, tried by court martial, and sentenced to death.

The impression in Mexico is that these men have been invited to join the Liberals by their officers, and, as a proof of this, people referred to Gen. Weitzell's dispatch to Gen. Steele, in which the former gives an account of the siege of Matamoras by the Liberals, as if he had been in front of Petersburg or Richmond and acquainted his superior of what was going on. He besids informs him, as a very natural circumstance, that sixty Federal soldiers are among the Liberals, assisting them to take the place and drive the Imperialists out of it. These facts have caused considerable uneasiness among the Imperialists, and fears are entertained of a rupture with the United States.

Tribute of Respect.

At a regular communication of Richland Lodge, No. 214, held at their Lodge Room in Thomasville, N. C., Nov. 20th, 1865, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, It having pleased Almighty God in his infinite wisdom, to remove from this terrestrial Lodge, we humbly trust, to the celestial Lodge above, our much esteemed brother, Dr. C. F. Smith.

Resolved, 1st. That while we deeply lament his death, and the loss of our most devoted brother, we humbly submit to the dispensation of the Divine will, hoping that our loss may be his eternal gain.

Resolved, 2nd, That the bereaved family and relatives of our deceased brother have our heartfelt sympathy in this sad bereavement.

Resolved, 3rd, That we wear the usual badge of mourning thirty days.

Resolved, 4th, That a copy of these resolutions be presented to the family of the deceased, and a copy sent to the Sentinel for publication.

FROM WASHINGTON.

The President firm in his Policy of Restoration--Mr. Colfax's Promulgations not Deemed Potent in Congress--Cavalry for the Rio Grande--Napolean not Likely to Withdraw from Mexico, &c.

[Special dispatch to the Baltimore Sun ]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—Since sending off my bulletin last night I have heard what strengthens me in the belief that the President will firmly maintain his position in reference to the restoration of Southern States. If he were, from the considerations that usually operate upon partizans, to change his policy, it would not ingratiate the personal friendship of the ultras.—But it is to be considered that he is supported by powerful presses outside of Southern ones, or those of the Democratic party. Nor are the views and desires of the ultras likely to be forwarded by Mr. Colfax's premature appearance here, and by his instant promulgation, as if he were master of the situation of the policy that is to obtain in Congress. The unprecedented act of forestalling the views and destroying the usual influential effect of the message will not swerve the President from his fixed purpose.

If Mr. Colfax were to say that all the republicans of Congress were at his back, would he be regarded as the master-spirit to whom the President, or those sharing his views, and therefore sincerely supporting him, should succumb? It is impossible, when most presses of the republican party are directly opposing some of the most important of the positions of Mr. Colfax, that there are no members of Congress who coincide with them.

In connection with the ordering of the cavalry to the Rio Grande, it may be stated that Mr. Browning has already received his appointment as Secretary of Legation to the Mexican Republic. He has been intimately connected with the President as his secretary, from boyhood, and must be familiar with his views in relation to Mexican affairs.

It is singular that, when French troops are arriving in small numbers in Mexico, and the same sort of troops to conciliate the Pope, are evacuating Rome, that it should be held that Napoleon is about to withdraw his army from Mexico. By the document published in the New York Times, it would appear that many years may pass before he will be constrained by any promise of his to withdraw it; moreover, the payment of a heavy sum is a condition precedent. There is no likelihood of his getting that at all. Then, who supposes that Napoleon made any suggestions of his policy that would bind him against what ambition or interest indicate as advisable at this time? Old Napoleon always cried, "Ships, colonies, alliances."

ALPAH.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20, 1865.—News has been received here that Gen. Carvajal, Col. Larratorga and Robert Duchesnois are actively engaged in New York in the purchase of arms and ammunition for the Mexican liberal army. A certain Broadway firm, at present nameless, has received an order for fifteen hundred uniforms, which are to be delivered in the course of the present month. Orders for rifles and ammunition have also been sent to New England to be filled in the shortest period of time. This material is to be shipped to Brownsville under protection of the American flag, and afterwards sent over to the Liberals across the river.

General Mejia, the commanding officer at Matamoras, having informed his government that half the forces besieging that place consisted of Federal soldiers, the Emperor Maximilian, fearing that such a state of affairs might lead to complications with the United States, has given up the idea of a tour in Yucatan. In his place the Empress has left the city of Mexico, and is now on her way to that province.

General Magruder has just taken the oath of allegiance to the imperial government, and is now a Mexican subject.

A portion of the French squadron cruising in the Gulf of Mexico has gone up the Rio Grande, for the purpose of driving the Liberal forces with their marines. It appears that the Liberals have not waited for this occurrence, having disbanded at the appearance of the French vessels.

On the day of the departure of the last mail received from Mexico, it was said that it was the intention of Maximilian to declare Matamoras in a state of seige. This resolution was taken in order to prevent the Liberals from receiving their ammunition and supplies from Brownsville.

The Imperialists deny that Monterey has been taken, and base their assertion upon the fact that the last news from that place was dated October 26, at which date there was nothing to prove that there were any Liberal troops in the vicinity or any indication that the place would be beseiged.

Probable Loss of the Steamship D. H. Mount.

The New York Herald of Tuesday publishes the following concerning this steamer:

The propeller steamship D. H. Mount, Captain Bachus, sailed from this port on the 20th of October for Jacksonville, Florida. She had on board an assorted cargo and twenty cabin passengers.—Since she sailed nothing has been heard of her except on the 22d ult., when she was seen seven miles south of Cape Hatteras. It is now believed that she was lost in the late severe gale on the North Carolina coast.

The D. H. Mount was a single decker of three hundred and twenty-seven tons burthen, and nine feet draught.

Judge Burritt, one of the passengers, was a member of the late State Convention of Florida, and was returning to his home from Washington, whither he had been on an official visit.

A Cruel Joke.

Some mad wag gets off the following on Gen. N. P. Banks, better known as Commissary Banks:

GENERAL BANKS CAN'T TAKE THE OATH.—By a law of Congress, before any member can take his seat, he must swear that he has never "directly or indirectly, given aid or comfort to the enemies of the Union." Now how can Gen. Banks (if elected,) get over that point? Why, the "rebs" called him their chief quartermaster, and Stonewall Jackson, when short of provisions, always started for Bank's commissary. In Texas, he fed Dick Taylor's command, and supplied them with six months' food and clothing, four wagon loads of paper collars, and other dandified military stores. Perhaps Banks can get over this thing, but how?

General Humphrey Marshall was sworn as Counsellor and Attorney at Law to practice in the New Orleans Courts, on the 9th inst.

The Cherokee Indians have deposed John Ross and proclaimed Downing as chief, with the approbation, it is said, of the Government at Washington.

From Alabama.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.

Dispatches from Montgomery Ala., to-day, states that Gov. Parson's Message to the Legislature, urges the adoption of the constitutional amendment abolishing slavery, the passage of laws protecting the persons and property of the freedmen. This course, he tninks, will secure the admission of their representatives in Congress and restore the State to all political rights.

Louisiana, Mexico and Mississippi.

WASHINGTON, Nov, 24.

New Orleans dispatch states that the Legislature of Louisiana met on yesterday and organized.

The Liberals were reported to be in force eight miles from Matamoras.

A dispatch from Jackson, Miss., states that Gov. Humphrey's message to the Legislature recommends that negro testimony be admitted into the Courts. He thinks that the passage of this measure would secure the withdrawal of the troops.

SONG OF THE FREEDMAN.

BY A. R. WATSON.

A freedman sat on a pile of bricks,
As the rain was pattering down;
His shoes were worn and his coat was torn
And his hat was without a crown.
He viewed the clouds and he viewed himself,
And shook the wet from his head,
And a tear dummed his eye as he saw go by
A boy with a loaf of bread,
And he raised his voice in a dolesome tone,
That sounded like a gong,
While the rain came down on his happy crown,
And sang to himself this song.

De wind blows cold, but I's done with toil,
And lef de cotten patch;
I guess old Massa tink he counts
De chickens 'fore dey hatch.
I totes no more de heavy load,
Nor drives old Missus round;
I wonder who dey's gwine to get
To work de patch ob ground.
Den fling away de rake and hoe,
Dis am de jubilee;
De rain may come, de wind may blow,
But bress de Lord I's free.

But I tink last night, as I tried to sleep,
Upon de muddy ground,
While de rain was drippin' on my head
And de wind was whizzin' round,
I'd like to hab my light'ood fire
And my cabin back again,
For de wedder's gettin' berry cold
Out here in all dis rain.
But den I's done wid rake and hoe,
Dis am de jubilee;
De rain may come, de wind may blow,
But bress de Lord I's free.

I's got all ragged 'bout de knees;
My shoes is worn out too;
My coat's so old dat from each sleeve
De elbow's comin' froo.
And dere's the children dat once played
In shirt tail 'bout de yard,—
I cannot buy a shirt for dem
De time's so berry hard.
But fling away de rake and hoe,
Dis am de jubilee;
De rain may come, de wind may blow,
But bress de Lord I's free.

De odder day when Pinky died,
I tink it berry good,
Dat de dear Lord shou'd take her off
Before dis cold wind blowed;
But den 'twas hard to see her die—
I wish she'd not been born—
I's 'traid she perished, for she asked
About de rice and corn.
But den I's done wid rake and hoe,
Dis am de jubilee;
De rain may come, de wind may blow,
But bress de Lord I's free.

And Dinah sits dere on the ground
And looks so thin and poor,
She cannot sing the song she sung
About de cabin door.
Her poor old limbs are almost bare,
Her cheek bone's coming froo;
I almost wish de Lord would come
And take her up dere too.
But den she's done wid rake and hoe,
Dis am de jubilee;
De rain may come, de wind may blow,
But bress de Lord she's free.

I dreamt last night ole Massa come
And took us home wid he,
To de log cabin dat we lef'
When first dey sot us free;
And dere I built de light'ood fire
And Dinah cooked de yam,—
Dey say that dreams are sometimes true;
I wonder if dis one am.
But den I's flung away de hoe
To hab a jub lee;
De rain may come, de wind may blow,
But bress de Lord I's free.

Pioneer Line of Steamers
FOR
Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York and Boston, via Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal.

THE COMMODIOUS STEAMERS PIONEER and Commodore Adams, will leave Newberne for Norfolk on TUESDAY of each week at 8 o'clock A M, connecting with the different lines of steamers for the above-named points. On and after the first day of December next they will leave on Tuesday and Friday of each week, making semi-weekly trips. Shippers of Goods will receive every facility and accommodation for the transportation of the same, as arrangements have been made with the different companies to forward goods to this line at low rates and without delay. Each of these steamers are capable of carrying 250 TONS OF FREIGHT,
through the canal without difficulty, as they were built expressly for the trade. They are fitted up with STATE ROOMS and BERTHS capable of accommodating thirty-five passengers. Every attention will be paid to the comfort of passengers, who will not be subject to the inconvenience of transfer to other vessels, but will be taken through direct without charge.
The tables of the steamers are liberally supplied with the best the market affords. Families traveling will find it to their interest to take this line, as they will thereby escape the danger and discomfort of a sea route, and the fatigue of railroad travel.
On the 15th of December next, if the business of the line warrants it, the steamer Williams will be put on the route, and tri-weekly trips will be made.
For freight or passage apply to Whitford, Dill & Co., Newbern, N C.

RALEIGH & GASTON,
NORTH CAROLINA CENTRAL,
WILMINGTON & WELDON,
ATLANTIC & N. CAROLINA.
☞ As the line of Railroads is opened, they will extend their business to all points in the South, in addition to those named.

The Company has also such favorable contracts with steamer lines from all Northern ports to those of the South, as will enable it to deliver goods at all inland points at rates below the usual charges. The tariff of charges will be based upon a fair business per centage above the cost of transportation, without being onerous or oppressive; nor will it be made less than the cost of transportation, with the view to break down or drive off any rival, to advance to oppressive and unnecessarily high rates. Upon this basis the Company solicits public patronage.

Office North of the Capitol, Wilmington Street, Raleigh.

FACTS TO BE CONSIDERED.

THERE ARE BUT FEW SUBJECTS PRESENTED to the mind of man upon which there are not a great variety of opinions, and about which there are not protracted discussions. But there are a few facts so well established, and so uncontrovertible that they are universally assented to. One is that all man now living, will soon be called upon to gather up their feet and depart to the land of the dead. "One generation goeth, and another cometh, and we have no abiding city here," is a matter about which there is no dispute. Another is, "Of that day, and of that hour, knoweth no man." Whether death cometh at the twelfth hour or at the cock crowing, is of equal uncertainty to all.

Another is, that when wife and children gather around us, to take their final leave, in that sad circle centers all our earthly interest. The last earthly rational thought of Husband and Father, is, Wife and Children (if worthy of sustaining such endearing relations.) Another is, no man living knows what may be the result of his efforts to secure a competence for his family. "Riches take to themselves wings and fly away," has been realized by how many? adverse winds of to-morrow, may take the place of to-day's prosperous gales; under currents which the most penetrating eye cannot see, or the strongest arm control, may in an evil hour sweep away the hard earnings of years. Another is, no man ever has, or ever can assume more sacred obligations, than Husband and Father. Hence it is said, that he that will not provide for his own household is worse than an infidel."

Now, what Husband and Father is there battling with the difficulties of life, knowing as he must, that uncertainties attend every effort, and wait upon every enterprise, that he has not with earnest voice, and anxious heart, called to the future to unlock its barred ga es and reveal to him the result of this or that undertaking. But the only voice that comes from that land of silence, is, "Verily, thou knowest not what shall be on the morrow."

Such are some of the few facts about which there is no controversy, and such are some of the uncertainties that ever have, and ever will, gather around our pathway through life, and which have in generations past, and will in generations to come, trouble and oppress the Husband and Father. Now in view of these facts, responsibilities, and uncertainties, it is for you to judge and decide upon the propriety, necessity, and duty, of making a policy on your life, for the benefit of your family. Will it not relieve you of your present anxiety to know that a certain portion of the fruits of you labors are secured to that family? Remember that whatever you pay for a life policy is paid to them. The stranger intermeddleth not with that.

Remember also, that $5000 paid to them in that day when the heart and flesh shall fail you, will be more to them, than $10,000 while you are here to provide for them. Also remember, that the amount for which you are insured will not be diminished in the settling of your estate, and that from generation to generation, Life Insurance has answered the end for which is was ordained, as fully, to say to the least, as any institution of man's creation, and that its primary object was, and still is, to secure the family against the stern realities of want, and to relieve from corroding anxiety those who have assumed family responsibilities.

Do you say "I know it would be wise in me to take out a policy and I intend to do so soon; but just now I want to use all my funds in my business."—Friend, if it is wisdom in you to insure at all, it is folly to defer it, to-morrow is in eternity, therefore "Boast not thyself of to morrow," "Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof." "Procrastination is the thief of time."

The Aetna Life Insurance Company offers you all the inducements to insure that can be found in any company. Its assets are over a million and a half. It has a surplus of $300,000 over and above what is required to reinsure all its policies. Its monthly receipts are over $150,000. And it is issuing monthly nearly 1000 policies. Its rates for insurance are as reasonable as those of any other well established responsible Company. It is paying as large dividends to its policy holders as any other Company. Its officers are competent business men. Its assets, are as permanently and as safely invested as any other company can invest theirs, and from which as good interest is being received. It pays its losses as promptly, is as particular in the character of its risks, and as yet it is a stranger to litigation.

A CARD.

THE SUBSCRIBER WOULD RESPECTFULLY call attention of the Ladies and Gentlemen of the City, and the public generally, to a large and beautiful stock of goods comprising every thing that is needful to complete a wardrobe.

For cheapness there is none that can compete with the house of Messrs. Bowen & Randall, No. 15 Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C. Call and examine his goods before you purchase elsewhere, and my word for it y u will find cheap goods.

A new supply of goods has just been received and he will continue to receive them by every steamer that arrives.

The strictest attention will be paid by Mr. Bowen, the proprietor, and his clerks, to those who give him a call.

Make no mistake. Be certain to call at the store No. 15 Fayetteville Street, on the corner of the vacant square. T. R. FENTRESS,
